

Iditarod

The Iditarod! There is no comparison to any other competitive event in the world! A race over 1,049 miles of the most remote, rough, and beautiful terrain Mother Nature has to offer. The Iditarod pits man and animal against nature, against wild Alaska at her best. A race extraordinaire, a race only possible in Alaska.

From Anchorage, in south central Alaska, to Nome on the western Bering Sea coast, each team of us to 16 dogs and its musher cover over 1,049 miles in 10 to 17 days. It has been called the "Last Great Race on Earth" and has won worldwide acclaim and interest. It's not just a sled dog race...it's a race in which unique men and women compete. Each with their own story, each with their own reasons for going the distance.

Come to Xstream Alaska Adventures Lodge and watch the "Last Great Race"! The race travels by the front of the lodge where you can walk to the center of the river and watch the racers go by. You won't find a place where you can watch it from a closer vantage point.
